Sayings about children

Some day you will be old enough to start reading fairy tales again. C.S. Lewis

We worry about what a child will become tomorrow, yet we forget that he is someone today. Stacia Tauscher

Cleaning your house while your kids are still growing up is like shoveling the path before it stops snowing. Phyllis Diller

When we are children we seldom think of the future. This innocence leaves us free to enjoy ourselves as few adults can. The day we fret about the future is the day we leave our childhood behind. Patrick Rothfuss

Growing up is such a barbarous business, full of inconvenience and pimples. J.M. Barrie

A child's life is like a piece of paper on which every person leaves a mark Chinese Proverb

Children are apt to live up to what you believe of them Lady Bird Johnson

Kids: They dance before they learn there is anything that isn't music William Stafford

The day the child realizes that all adults are imperfect, he becomes an adolescent; the day he forgives them, he becomes an adult; the day he forgives himself, he becomes wise. Alden Nowlan

You know children are growing up when they start asking questions that have answers. John J. Plomp

Dear Mom, You get mad at me for not acting my age, and then start crying because I'm 'growing up too fast.' Sincerely, pick one! Unknown

I regret not having had more time with my kids when they were growing up. Tina Turner
