'Grandmothers'

I enjoy watching my wife, 'Grandma Bonnie', interact with our grandchildren, especially our 7-month old grandson. As we come close to Mothers' Day, I thought we would remember Grandmothers this week.

Wisdom from "Mothers' wit" [Vale & Rattle]

Grandmas never run out of hugs ... or cookies.

The best place to be when you're sad is your – Grandma's lap.
[Jeannie, age 7]

Grandmothers are good at sitting on the floor to play, but they can be terribly difficult to get upright again.

A grandmother is a mother who has a second chance.

A mother becomes a true grandmother the day she stops noticing the terrible things her children do, because she is so enchanted with the wonderful things her grandchildren do. [Lois Wyse]

Grandmother – a wonderful mother with lots of practice.

Grandmas are people who take delight in hearing babies breathing into the telephone.

It's such a good thing to be a mother of a mother – that's why the world calls her grandmother.

A grandmother is a babysitter who watches the kids instead of television.

Quote of the week: "Grandchildren don't make a man feel old; it's the knowledge he's married to a grandmother" [G. Norman Collie]
