'A few jokes to warm up the winter'

I'm pretty goofy. I laugh at my own jokes.
[Abby Wambach]

A good, hearty laugh relieves tension, leaving muscles relaxed. It boosts the immune system, decreases stress hormones and increases immune cells and infection-fighting antibodies, thus improving your resistance to disease.

Enjoy these 12 laughter inducers

- 1] What happens to a frog's car when it breaks down? It gets toad away.
- 2] Instead of "the John," I call my toilet "the Jim." That way it sounds better when I say I go to the Jim first thing every morning.
- 3] Q: Why did the can crusher quit his job? A: Because it was soda pressing.
- 4] Q: What do you call a pig that does karate? A: A pork chop.
- 5] A bank robber pulls out a gun, points it at the teller, and says, "Give me all the money or you're geography!" The puzzled teller replies, "Did you mean to say 'or you're history?'" The robber says, "Don't change the subject!"
- 6] If you ever get cold, just stand in the corner of a room for a while. They're normally around 90 degrees.
- 7] Whoever invented knock knock jokes should get a no bell prize.
- 8] If the right side of the brain controls the left side of the body, then lefties are the only ones in their right mind.
- 9] Q: How do trees access the internet? A: They log in
- 10] Q: Why shouldn't you write with a broken pencil? A: Because it's pointless!
- 11] Q. What is the color of the wind? A. Blew.
- 12] Q: What has more lives than a cat? A: A frog because it croaks every night.
